

Emboldened to Share the Word
Romans 10:8-17

When believers think about witnessing, the most dominant emotion is _____. Romans 10:8-17 can _____ us to share our faith in Jesus with others.

Though we may feel inadequate to our faith, we are starting out with some distinct _____. The primary one is that God has not made Himself or His will _____ for people to perceive and grasp. The _____ of God is all over creation and human personality and psychology. There are some difficult disadvantages as well. 1). The World's _____. 2). Fear of God. 3) False _____—especially that we can be good enough to be right with God.

We can calm some fears by becoming _____ about the message of Jesus and the good news of His salvation.

1. That all people are created by God and _____ by God as a parent loves a child.
2. All people have _____ from God, denying His rightful place as their God and heavenly Father. Bible calls it “_____.”
3. If this rejection and broken relationship with Him persists until death, a person will experience not only a diminished sense of _____ and meaning, but also an eternity _____ from God where all good is absent. Bible calls this “_____.”
4. Jesus came as God in the flesh to show us the _____ to God and pay any _____ for our sins by dying on the cross.
5. He rose from the grave to offer _____ of His power over sin and death.
6. His offer of a right relationship to God and abundant, eternal life is _____ for all people. It is not forced but granted as a gift to those who _____ in the message of Jesus’ death and resurrection and _____ His lordship over their lives. Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.

When the message is shared by a Christian witness, the chance for faith to arise in the person who hears _____, for faith comes by hearing a word about Christ.